

Permission for secondary publication of a contribution from a monograph or journal in the institutional repository of the Julius-Maximilians-Universität Würzburg (OPUS Würzburg)

– Suggested wording for your request to the publisher –

Dear Sir or Madam at XYZ Publishing House,

The University Library of Würzburg (Germany) offers its members the possibility to digitally archive their publications and to make them accessible free of charge via the scientific repository OPUS Würzburg (<https://opus.bibliothek.uni-wuerzburg.de>). The University Library offers this service on a non-commercial basis.

As the publisher of my article / contribution

TITLE & PAGES

in the edited volume / journal

TITLE OF VOLUME / JOURNAL

I hereby request your permission to upload the full text of the article and the metadata to OPUS Würzburg for the purpose of digital archiving and free online availability.

The entry will include a link to the original publication on the journal's website / the website of your publishing house.

May I kindly ask you to send the permission either by e-mail or by mail to the following address: ADDRESS. Please find below a template at your disposal:

Permission for upload of a publication to the scientific repository OPUS Würzburg

Concerning the article (ARTICLE, PAGE NUMBER), originally published in (NAME EDITED VOLUME OR JOURNAL, YEAR), we (NAME PUBLISHING HOUSE) hereby grant (NAME AUTHOR) permission to archive the published version / manuscript version (Please select!) of the above referenced article in the repository OPUS Würzburg and to enable free access to this upon receipt of this e-mail / after an embargo period of ___ months.

DATE, PLACE, NAME / SIGNATURE OF PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE

Should you wish further information on the repository of University Library of Würzburg or have any other questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you in advance!

Kind regards