

Application for temporary non-publishing of a doctoral thesis

Surname, first name:

Address:

Phone number:

E-mail:

Faculty/Subject:

Title of thesis:

Period for temporary non-publishing (max 1 year):

Reason for temporary non-publishing:

I request that my dissertation shall not yet be published by the University Library at this point in time, i. e. that the dissertation

- shall not be listed in the University Library catalogue,
- shall not be published on the University Library server on the internet,
- shall not be available in any format via the University Library,
- shall not be forwarded to the German national library "Deutsche Nationalbibliothek" or any other relevant repository.

I am aware of the fact that the University Library will publish my dissertation as soon as the period of time specified for the submission of depositary copies in the corresponding PhD rules has expired.

Where the PhD committee grants an extension of the period of time for publication, I shall be obliged to inform the University Library hereof immediately. Should I fail to do so, the dissertation will be published.
